PIPING HOT

This cosy jacket is inspired by Louis Vuitton's penchant for silk pyjama shirts with black piping detail, while the gold fasteners are the type of detail that we associate with the fashion house's creative director for womenswear, Nicolas Ghesquière. With echoes of the Tyrolean walker jacket, this could slide into your suitcase for a Mitteleuropean weekender. ——— GCH

HANDS UP

Though the long evening glove will always evoke the high 1950s glamour of Rita Hayworth, Belgian designer Dries Van Noten's latest iteration of this sleek staple will bring modern drama to any outfit. In alluring shades of mauve and khaki, these stretchy opera gloves can be worn subtly under a wool blazer or shown off as a pop of colour with an evening dress. ——— LMT
